Payden Global Short Bond Fund is a sub-fund of Payden Global Funds plc, an open-ended investment company with variable capital incorporated under Ireland law and is authorised by FINMA for offering to non-qualified investors. The prospectus for Switzerland, the key investor information documents ("KIID"), the articles, the semi-annual and annual reports and other information can be obtained free of charge from the Fund's representative and paying agent in Switzerland: Reyl & Cie SA., 4, rue de Rhône, 1204 Geneva, Switzerland.

The Fund is actively managed with reference to the FTSE World Government Bond 1-3 Year Index NOK Hedged (the "Index"). The Index is used (i) as a universe from which to select or hold securities; and (ii) to measure performance of the Fund. The investment manager has discretion over the composition of the portfolio of the Fund and may select securities not included in the Index. Both in-Index and out-of-Index securities may be used, and deviations from the Index may be significant. Whilst the investment manager does not employ a defined strategy to align with a benchmark during periods of volatility, it will take account of market environment and perceived risks at any given time and will employ its investment discretion as described in the investment policy accordingly.
